

Recently qualified solicitor – vacancy as a co-opted member of the Admissions Committee

The Society's Admissions Committee carries out the functions of the Council relating to the training and admission of solicitors. The Committee is seeking to co-opt a recently qualified solicitor (admitted within the last three years). The appointment will be for a set period of one year and will commence in late summer 2010.

Applicants should be:

- committed to ensuring high quality of training of solicitors in Scotland
- committed to ensuring high calibre of entrant to the profession
- aware of equality and diversity issues which may affect their role
- knowledgeable of the legal profession

Recently qualified solicitors interested in this position should submit a copy of their curriculum vitae with a covering letter detailing the reasons for the interest in this position to:-

- by post to:

Katie Meanley, Manager, Registrar's Department,
26 Drumsheugh Gardens,
Edinburgh
EH3 7YR

or. LP – 1, Edinburgh – 1;

- or by email to: katiemeanley@lawscot.org.uk

Applications should be submitted by 9 April 2010 and interviews are likely to take place week beginning 3 May 2010.